CALL TO CONFESSION

PRAYER OF CONFESSION (Unison)

O God, we come this morning as people in need, separated from you, confessing our shortsightedness. We hear the cries and sorrows of neighbors. We see the problems and injustices of the day. We feel the burdens and stress of life. Help us, Lord, to hear and to listen. Help us to see the beautiful light at the end of whatever darkness surrounds us. Help us to trust that darkness never defeats the light of your love. From you there are new mercies each morning. With you there is always a loving presence. Transform us into your trusting children that we might journey in joyous paths and faithful love.

RESPONSE Take, O Take Me as I Am

John L. Bell

ASSURANCE OF PARDON

Leader: Friends, believe the Good News!

People: In Jesus Christ, we are forgiven.

RESPONSE Celtic Alleluia (sing twice)

AFFIRMATION OF FAITH (Unison)

We believe that God has created the world of space and time to be the sphere of his dealing with us. In its beauty and vastness, sublimity and awfulness, order and disorder, the world reflects to the eye of faith the majesty and mystery of its Creator. God has created us and has endowed us with capacities to make the world serve his needs and to enjoy its good things. Life is a gift to be received with gratitude and a task to be pursued with courage. We are free to seek life within the purpose of God, to develop and protect the resources of nature for the common welfare, to work for justice and peace in society, and in other ways to use our creative powers for the fulfillment of all life.
