PRAYER OF CONFESSION (Unison)

In the waters of baptism, O God, you have cleansed us and claimed us. Forgive us for resisting your grace. Forgive us for not seeing your image in all people. We have followed our own paths, and they have led us far from you. Help us to live into our baptisms, to trust that all we need is in you, for you have marked us as your own, loving us without limit. Wash us with your love again, so that with clean hearts we may go in the way of Jesus the Christ. Amen.

AFFIRMATION OF FAITH (Unison)

adapted from A Brief Statement of Faith, Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.)

In life and in death we belong to God. Through the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Spirit.

We trust in Jesus Christ, fully human, fully God. Jesus was crucified, suffering the depths of human pain and giving his life for the sins of the world. God raised this Jesus from the dead, vindicating his sinless life, breaking the power of sin and evil, delivering us from death to life eternal.

We trust in God, whom Jesus called Abba, Father. In sovereign love God created the world good and makes everyone equally in God’s image, male and female, of every race and people, to live as one community.

We trust in God the Holy Spirit, everywhere the giver and renewer of life. The Spirit justifies us by grace through faith, sets us free to accept ourselves and to love God and neighbor, and binds us together with all believers.

In gratitude to God, empowered by the Spirit, we strive to serve Christ in our daily tasks and to live holy and joyful lives.

With believers in every time and place, we rejoice that nothing in life or in death, can separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus our Lord. Amen.

OFFERTORY ANTHEM

(9:00) The Three Kings

Peter Cornelius

arr. Neil Jenkins

Three kings from Persian lands afar to Jordan follow the pointing star; and this the quest of the travelers three, where the newborn king of the Jews may be. Full royal gifts they bear for the king; gold, incense, myrrh are their offering.

The star shines out with a steadfast ray: the kings to Bethlehem make their way, and there in worship they bend the knee, As Mary's child in her lap they see; their royal gifts they show to the king: gold, incense, myrrh are their offering.

Thou child of man! Lo, to Bethlehem the kings are trav'ling, travel with them! The star of mercy, the star of grace shall lead thy heart to its resting place. Gold, incense, myrrh thou canst not bring; offer thy heart to the infant king. Offer thy heart!

OUR THANKS to Terrance McCracken for his enrichment of our worship this morning.

THIS MORNING the Chancel Choir sings David Willcocks' arrangement of "I Saw Three Ships" in honor of his 90th birthday, celebrated late last month. Sir David was organist at Salisbury Cathedral from 1947 to 1950 and at Worcester Cathedral from 1950 to 1957 before becoming Director of Music at King's College, Cambridge, in 1957. His legendary tenure at King's College would continue until 1974, during which time he further developed the choir's outstanding tradition and high standards. Church music has benefitted immeasurably from his many contributions as a conductor, organist, and composer.
