SEVENTH SUNDAY AFTER EPIPHANY

THE CHURCH GATHERS ...

Welcome to Westminster Church! We are a family of Christians gathered from many traditions and neighborhoods, worshiping here with the goal of connecting faith and life. If you are a visitor, we pray you will feel welcome and blessed by our worship. We invite you to consider making Westminster your church home. Please let us have your contact information so we may be in touch.

Children are welcome in worship here. A nursery is available during the entire service.

When the prelude begins let us quietly prepare for the worship of almighty God.

Merciful God,

By what we have done and what we have left undone.
We have not loved you with our whole heart and mind and strength.
We have not loved our neighbors as ourselves.
In your mercy forgive what we have been,
Help us amend what we are and direct what we shall be,
So that we may delight in your will and walk in your ways,
To the glory of your holy name.

EPISTLE Galatians 3:27-29
SERMON “God and Your Closet” Dr. Lauren Winner

“What good is it, my brothers and sisters, if you say you have faith but do not have works? Can faith save you? If a brother or sister is naked and lacks daily food, and one of you says to them, ‘Go in peace; keep warm and eat your fill,’ and yet you do not supply their bodily needs, what is the good of that? So faith by itself, if it has no works, is dead.” – James 2:14-17

HYMN NO. 434 (blue hymnal) Today We All Are Called to Be Disciples Kingsfold
AFFIRMATION OF FAITH (Unison)

We have a message of hope for a fearful time. In our era of globalization we offer a vision of a society that shares more and consumes less, seeks compassion over suspicion and equality over domination, and finds security in joined hands rather than massed arms. We honor the dignity of every person and the intrinsic value of every creature, and pray and work for the day when none “labor in vain or bear children for calamity.” We commit ourselves to a culture of peace and freedom that embraces non-violence, nurtures character, treasures the environment, and builds community, rooted in a spirituality of inner growth with outward action, trusting in the God who makes all things new.

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE ... The Lord’s Prayer

Leader: Lord, in your mercy,
People: Hear our prayer.

OFFERTORY ANTHEM

(9:00) Reflection on “O Waly Waly” Sandra Eithun
(11:00) The Risen Sun Craig Phillips
Be still, my soul, and rest upon the Lord In quiet certainty. For He has come to rescue you from doubt. And now you stand In blazing glory of a risen sun That cannot set. It will forever be Exactly as it is. You stand with Him Within a radiance prepared for you Before time was and far beyond its reach. Be still and know. And knowing, be you sure Your Lord has come to you. There is no doubt That stands before His countenance, nor can Conceal from you what He would have you see. The sun has risen. He has come at last. Where stands His Presence there can be no past. Be still, my soul, and rest upon the Lord Who comes to keep the promise of His Word.

Helen Schucman

BLT: Bible/Lunch/Tuesdays

February 25 – Noon

This week, we conclude our study of the Gospel of John with Chapters 20-21 and pages 116-128 in the study guide.

THIS MORNING’S MUSIC FOR HANDBELLS is a lovely and imaginative setting of the familiar English folk melody and hymn tune with which we most often associate the text “Though I May Speak.” The arranger makes clever use of several interesting elements, including an aleatoric device at the beginning of the piece that evokes wind chimes. She also includes suspended bells played by mallets and a ringing technique where the bells are rhythmically and lightly pressed into the tables’ padding to create a pulsing effect. Most striking of all, though, is the inclusion of handchimes in the texture. In the past we’ve simply had to ring those parts with handbells, foregoing the amazing difference in timbre. This past fall we were most fortunate to be gifted with a five-octave set of handchimes, generously given by Ed and Debbie Babelay in memory of his sister, Cleo Margaret Babelay. We are hugely indebted to them for providing the Handbell Choir and the church with these fine instruments and all the opportunities they will provide our choir and congregation.

AN OPPORTUNITY STILL EXISTS TO SPONSOR A ROOM: We have already received pledges of $29,000 to sponsor several rooms that will be part of the HVAC makeover this spring. We are trying to minimize the amount of money that will have to be borrowed to pay for the new system. Current estimates for the cost of the new system are in the $350-450K range. Take a look at the diagram in the narthex and see the suggested cost of sponsorship for each room. Some are already “sold” and are marked as such. We will also take partial payments on a room! Let Renee or Sandra know if you are interested.
