FLOWERS IN THE SANCTUARY are given by Gail Latimer in memory of her father, Bill McDonald, on his birthday, January 26.

JEAN ADAM GUILAIN was born in Germany and lived from around 1680 until sometime after 1739, spening much of his career as an organist and harpsichordist in Paris. Moving to France sometime before 1702, he is believed to have studied with Louis Marchand, to whom his collection of organ works, published in 1706, is dedicated. These organ works appear in suites, each written on a different church mode (or scale), intended for use with the magnificat (the organ movements alternating with the sung parts of the liturgy). This morning’s piece is played on the principal chorus and features pungent dissonances and broad motion.

THE BIRTH CANDLE is lit today in celebration of Ira Arthur Freeman, first child born to parents Abby and Chris Freeman on January 25.

THERE'S A NEW COFFEE SPOT AT WESTMINSTER! Give it a try on Sunday mornings from 10:00- 11:00 a.m. It's trying to find a permanent home, but for now our coffee bar is under the TV near the kitchen. It offers an assortment of coffee, tea, hot chocolate, and flavorings for you to enjoy. You can grab a cup to take to a Sunday school class or stay and chat. We're purchasing our coffee through UPerk at UTK, so we'll be helping their ministry.

SCHILLING GALLERY EXHIBIT: A special treat awaits you in the Schilling Gallery: Audrey Parsons Yates (wife of Stephen Yates, son of Jim and Linda Yates) brought her pottery pieces from her home in Tullahoma to share with us. Exhibiting with her is her wood-turning father Ralph Parsons. The majority of the pottery is sale! ALSO, local artist Kim Kimmons has a wonderful watercolor exhibit called "The American Cowboy." Stop by and see the beauty of these hand-created pieces of art. Mr. Kimmons is donating all proceeds from the sale of any painting to WPC. What a kind, giving spirit.
